Hi Ma

Well I thought it was about time I sent you all a letter. Well its finally happened Duane and I are going to be split up after being together so long. Duane is going to stay here with A company and we are going to move out, I will be anywhere from 65 to 100 miles from him for the rest of my stay in the Army. But if I never do get the chance I'll see him when I get out. That is if you don't care if I come out to your place. I have to start saving money so I can get a new car when I get out. I'll have to give you a ride in it. Oh yes I'll also have to teach you to fish. Every girl I ever went with had to learn how or else. Tell your mother I just can't wait to taste a good chicken dinner. These Army Cooks slaughter any food they try to make. Those were some pretty nice pictures you sent to Duane. Who is the cute young lady in the pictures? Well All
